OUTREACH UPDATES

Bethel Night Shelter - Warming Season

- Bethel Shelters began its Warming Season on November 10th. During this season Bethel Shelter will be operating its overflow shelters to ensure men experiencing homelessness in our region have access to nightly shelter during the winter months.

LACH Warming Center

- The Lancaster Area Coalition for The Homeless (LACH) has opened its Warming Center, as of last night (12/4)
- The LACH Warming & Severe Weather Center is a short-term emergency shelter designed to provide a safe place to sleep, meals, and basic hygiene items in a clean environment on cold winter nights. The Center will open on nights where the temperature drops below 40 degrees or the weather is otherwise unsafe for individuals who are unhoused or unsheltered.
- For questions, please email Emily Price at lachhouse@uwaylcsc.org.
